

Mind: Dimensions of Individual Behavior, Fall 2018-1
Student Feedback

Student Comments:

- He was great at facilitating discussion.
- When you comment on the articles, he helps you elaborate on your opinion in a deeper level with follow-up questions.
- Dominic was always willing and able to explain concepts and answer questions in clarifying manner.
- He was good at explaining concepts and bringing up different aspects of the lectures
- I loved hearing his personal anecdotes from his research and how that related to what we were learning; they always enhanced by understanding of concepts as well.
- Leading the class discussion while giving many opportunities for students to ask questions was really helpful. I was able to discuss a lot of the ideas from the readings and lectures that I personally found interesting.
- Dominic's facilitation of the discussion was fantastic and he did a great job of guiding us through the difficult concepts and idea creation
- Whenever Dominic discussed external experiments they were always relevant and interesting. Those seemed to engage both me and other students.
- He had a very approachable persona so it made it easy to ask questions. He also seemed genuinely interested in answering our questions even if it veered a little off course.
